

EMILY G. ONG

Emily G. Ong-Yap's commitment to the Siberian Husky breed started in 1999 when she acquired BISS/BIS Ph HOF Kristari's Spellbound Salem. On limited showing, Salem became the first female Siberian Husky in PCCI history to finish her Hall of Fame title. Since then, Emily has campaigned several Champion, Grand Champion, BIS & BISS winner Siberian Huskies to her credit, including her Australian import, BISS/BIS Ph GR CH Suthanlite's Get A Lawyer, which won the Siberian Husky Nationals last 2004.

Her kennel (SPELLBOUND) emphasizes on QUALITY and not QUANTITY, breeding only one litter per year. Her very strict breeding program focuses on type, balance, and soundness.

Her philosophy is to improve the Siberian Husky breed in the Philippines. Towards this end, she has helped in educating would-be Siberian Husky fanciers and owners alike about the breed characteristics and standard. Her dedication continues to this day as a reputable breeder, exhibitor, and judge of Siberian Huskies.
